Do you trust God unconditionally?

This question hit home for Job in the Old Testament. He suffered the loss of his 7 sons, 3 daughters, livestock and wealth to pillaging murderers and a horrific storm in a single day.

This dreadful loss so grieved his wife that she challenged Job's faith. "Are you still trying to be godly when God has done all this to you? Curse Him and die."

Job responded to his brokenhearted wife with a statement of abiding confidence. "What? Shall we receive only pleasant things from the hand of God and never anything unpleasant?" (Job 2:9-10).

Job knew that the Lord was inherently good and was involved in this world to save him from the ultimate heartache of sin and its destructive result of death.

He expressed his undying faith in God's salvation. "I know that my Redeemer lives, and at the last He will stand upon the earth. And after my skin has been thus destroyed, yet in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!" (Job 19:25-27)

For Job and for us, unconditional trust in God depends upon our view of Christ's victory over sin, death and the devil. The resurrection of Jesus Christ shows us the reality and empowerment of that victory. The sting of sin has been removed.

Now 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 shows what meaning His plan of salvation holds for us through the challenges of life. "Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal."

LWML Pacific Southwest District
41st Biennial Convention
June 5-7, 2026
Warner Center Marriot
Woodland Hills, CA

Two of Trinity's ladies will gather with fellow LWMLers in the beautiful San Fernando Valley where they will explore the theme, "Whatever!"

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Philippians 4:8

With the help of Bible study leaders Deb Burma and Cindy Steinbeck, we will focus on whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, commendable, excellent, and worthy of praise.

Expanding on our theme will be a pre-convention session by Kari Vo, who will also provide another special session on Saturday at lunch.

On Friday afternoon, there is an opportunity to hear from a wide variety of speakers, participate in servant events, and visit our exhibitors.

Friday evening, we officially begin convention with the Opening Worship Service at Canoga Park Lutheran Church, about two miles from the hotel. The congregation has invited everyone to a reception following the service.

Saturday's activities will include a mission walk to raise funds for mission grants, a Men's Bible study, time in God's Word, learning about mission projects, great food, awesome fellowship, fun, and entertainment, which includes the music of Kedma Wenz, and an 80's-themed Name that Tune

Please for the ladies and the mission work done by the wonderful PSD LWML!

Hello ladies of Trinity!!

We had a good turnout for our last LWML luncheon of the 2025-2026 season. We had our own Yoli Hempe speaking on her path to becoming a deaconess and got to say hi to her husband Kevin who went from being a member of Trinity to the seminary in Fort Wayne, IN and is now a pastor in Pacifica, CA. She will be able to assist him in so many ways. She still has a year to go for her credentials.

We have had a changing of the guard on our board. Karen Miller who served for several years has stepped down as president and Phyllis Hafliger is replacing her. Phyllis has stepped down as secretary and Heidi Pinto-Griffin has agreed to take that post while she is in the desert. Someone else will fill in for the two months or so that she will be gone

September 10, 2026 at 10:30am will be our first luncheon of the new season and we will kick it off with Sandy Culley giving a presentation of the Lord's Prayer. Really looking forward to seeing some new faces at our meetings!! We continue to be involved with several organizations in the desert one being Birth Choice of the Desert and will be planning some projects during the year. I believe you will get a lot out of being involved with LWM and would really encourage you to join us if you haven't already.

Have a great summer and we will see you in the fall. Don't forget your Mite Boxes.

In Christ,
Kris Chamberlain,
LWML VP

Mid-Year Report

It's time for our TLC Mid-Year Report. Plan to stay after church on Sunday, July 26 for a short voter's meeting. This is a good time to hear what has been going on and what is yet to be here at Trinity. We value every member and this is a good way to connect mid year.

Life in Abundance

...I came that they may have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10b. Jesus is speaking. What do you suppose He means by having life in abundance?

I looked up the definition of abundance and as you might imagine the main emphasis was on financial wealth and having lots of stuff. Somehow, I don't think Jesus means financial wealth. He is a poor itinerant preacher and the people he is talking to (us) are of modest means. He is not telling us wealth is important. He is talking about something else.

I looked for deeper definition and found a religious definition: An abundant life consists of God's generosity and provisions (which might include wealth), blessings, love, mercy, compassion and emotional wellbeing as we face the stresses of the world. And then He gives eternal life through Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

We are not worthy of any of this. God created us, called us and set us apart as his children...*the Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God and if children then heirs-heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ...*Romans 8:16-17.

Sunday Summer Schedule

Summer is quickly approaching and our Sunday schedule will be suspended for the summer months. Throughout the summer we will have opportunity for various family events. Texts and emails will be sent to announce these events and all TLC members and families will be invited and encouraged to participate. Thank you for your continued prayers and support!
